

We would like to let you know that one of our top selling parts - 55559955 Direct Ignition Cassette - is being superseded to a new part and new part number 32022255. The new part has the same fitment and pricing as the old part number.

The 55559955 DI cassette was quite superior to any aftermarket competitor, and you can expect the same from 32022255.

- The new DI cassette is a new part developed to our specifications exclusively for ORIO via a partnership between our engineers and the supplier.
- 32022255 has been extensively tested, with even lower failure rates than the high-quality outgoing part, and we stand behind it with our industry leading warranty.
- 32022255 has been selling in Europe for several months with great success and 0 reported failures to date.

The first shipment has just arrived here in the US and will be available for sale by next week. If you have questions, please contact our parts help line for assistance.
